

February 2017

Thank you for expressing interest in driving our young people to and from field trips. We greatly appreciate you volunteering.

To help keep our young people safe, the Archdiocese and our insurance company have rules and regulations we need to follow.

All potential drivers must:

- be at least 21 years of age
- maintain a minimum of $100,000-$300,000 in automotive liability insurance
- understand that they do not have permission to work with handicapped children or adults.
- understand they cannot transport children or adults in any vehicle larger than a minivan. Absolutely no 11-15 passenger vans can be used.
- be aware that the use of electronic devices is prohibited while driving on behalf of the church.
- fill out a Driver Information Sheet (page 2)
- view Be Smart-Drive Safe and Church Transportation Videos (instructions on pages 3-5)
- be Essential-3 Qualified
 - if never attended a live Virtus training:
attend a Virtus training, complete a background check (with DMV check), and view the Code of Conduct video training & sign the Code of Conduct (instructions on pages 6-17)
 - OR
 - If attended a live Virtus training before June 30, 2014:
view Keeping the Promise Alive video, completed a background re-check (with DMV check), and view the Code of Conduct video training & sign the Code of Conduct (instructions on pages 18-29)
 - OR
 - If attended a live Virtus training and viewed the Keeping the Promise Alive video:
complete a background re-check (with DMV check)

If you have any questions about any of the points above, please contact Susie Irlbeck, parish business administrator, at sirlbeck@stgens.org or 651-429-7937.
